

Figure 19a. A photograph of sensor head configurations that are available for the Nortek Aquadopp AP. The Aquadopp deployed in this study was configured with the right-angle sensor head (outlined in red on the photo), which is optimized for a low profile to minimize drag. This photo is courtesy of Nortek.