

US Geological Survey - Woods Hole Science Center

Why are we in Woods Hole, Massachusetts?

The goal of the Coastal and Marine Geology Program is to describe the geology of coastal and marine systems. To carry out this mission, the team is located in Woods Hole with the internationally recognized Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution as a part of the Woods Hole Research community for more than 35 years.